

State of South Carolina

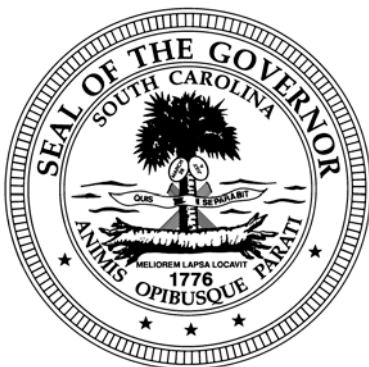

Governor's Proclamation

- WHEREAS, stroke, or brain attack, is a leading cause of adult disability and the third leading cause of death in America, killing an estimated 160,000 people annually; and
- WHEREAS, every 53 seconds someone in the United States experiences a stroke; and
- WHEREAS, of the more than four million stroke survivors in the United States, approximately two-thirds live with moderate to severe disabilities; and
- WHEREAS, South Carolina has the highest incidence of stroke in the United States; and
- WHEREAS, stroke is one of the most preventable of all life-threatening health problems, with prevention and early treatment dramatically reducing a patient's chance of disability or death; and
- WHEREAS, knowledge of the risks and warning signs of a stroke is essential to prevention and early treatment; and
- WHEREAS, Stroke Awareness Month urges people to take charge of their health by asking their doctors about stroke risks and adopting healthy lifestyle habits to lower those risks.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mark Sanford, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 2004 as

throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to ask their doctors about stroke prevention and the warning signs of stroke.
